ROSA MEADE'S VERDICT.—The jury in Judge Montgomery's court in Washington yesterday rendered a verdict in the case of Rosa Meade, a little eight-year old girl of this city, giving her $5,000 damages against the R. & D. R. R. The girl while playing on Union street last year was run over by a train on the Midland road and had one of her legs badly injured. Messrs. Burke and Greese of this city represented the little girl. Gen. Payne, Messrs. Kent, Staples and Marbury, who appeared for the railroad company, promptly gave notice of a motion for a new trial. The case is attracting the attention of lawyers, as a far-reaching example of the extension of jurisdiction of the District courts. The plaintiff and defendant are residents of Virginia. The fact of the railroad company having an office in the District is what gives the District courts jurisdiction. During the trial a rather amusing incident occurred. Mr. Edmund Burke, who represents the little girl who was hurt by the cars, made a mild opening when the case went to the jury, reserving his heavy thunder for the closing argument, to which the rules of practice give him the right. He fortified himself with a liberal amount of a tonic and went down to listen to Mr. Linden Kent's argument for the railroad, when Mr. Kent remarked, "We will submit the case on Mr. Burke's argument." He was so surprised that the candy almost choked him. But it was all over. He had lost the benefit of his reserve fire and wasted his candy. The jury, however, found a verdict for $5,000 for Mr. Burke's client notwithstanding he was out of his second speech.

A HEARTLESS MOTHER.—Just before dark yesterday evening a colored woman living on Gibson street, near Fairfax, became angered with her son who is about 14 years old, because he disobeyed her in going with another boy against her orders. She took her son in the house, stripped him, and was administering a severe whipping, when the boy, becoming frantic from pain, broke from her grasp and rushed from the house in a nude condition. He was hotly pursued by the infuriated woman, and in their wild run they were followed by a number of boys who joined in the screams of the fugitive, thus adding to his fright. In his confusion he rushed into the river at the foot of Gibson street to escape his tormentors. A man who happened to be passing at the time took the boy from the river and taking off his coat wrapped it around him and took him home. Here the boy was again being whipped when a neighbor interfered, and under threats of prosecution compelled the heartless mother to desist from further attacks on her son.

DEATH OF A FORMER ALEXANDRIAN.—Mr. John Wood, jr., a native of this city, died last Saturday at Ivy Depot, Albemarle county, in the 75th year of his age. Mr. Wood was well known in this city where he formerly lived. He was a son of the late John Wood and for some years was connected with this office, continuing as a correspondent when he moved to Albemarle county. There he engaged in mercantile and banking business and acquired a considerable fortune. He married a Miss Harper, of the county.

NEWLY INCORPORATED.—Messrs. Baskin and McKibbin, proprietors of Marshall Hall resort, have had that resort reincorporated under the laws of West Virginia under the name of the Mount Vernon and Potomac River Steamboat Company. The new company will develop the resources of this popular excursion point and spend much of the capital subscribed toward making it more attractive and pleasant to summer visitors.

FRATERNAL VISIT.—A delegation of ladies and gentlemen from Golden Light Lodge of Good Templars, of this city, visited Providence Lodge of Fairfax C. H., yesterday. They were welcomed in an address by Mr. Job Hawhurst. The visiting lodge was pleasantly entertained by Providence Lodge which furnished an excellent programme of musical and literary exercises and a bountiful repast. The delegation returned to this city this morning.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with one prisoner and one lodger at the station house.

The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of a young man arrested by Officer Henry for fast driving. He was fined $2.

VOTING FOR POSTMASTER.—The republican patrons of the Falls Church postoffice held a caucus last night and nominated E. Frank Crocker for appointment as postmaster, the vote resulting—Crocker 99, Lounsbury 43.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its chains upon her, and for seven years she watched its sovereign tests; but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night, and with one bottle she has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther C. Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Co's.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourbon Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Bro.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Egg picking has commenced. The market to-day was overstocked with eggs, which sold at from 12 to 15 cents per dozen.

The Board of County Supervisors have purchased a large and well arranged fire-proof safe from Mr. J. J. Jamieson, for $225. As will be seen by a notice elsewhere the firm of Summers & Allen has been dissolved. Mr. Allen will carry on the drug business and Mr. Summers the soda water business at the old stand.

A colored man named Maurice Wheeler, who said he came from Fairfax county, was arrested in Washington yesterday for having in his possession a lot of harness supposed to have been stolen.

Detective Wheeler, of Washington, yesterday went to Culpeper to bring back William Woodson, colored, arrested for the police for stealing $18 belonging to Catherine Clements, of Washington, which money she had hid under a carpet.

Capt. R. M. Smoot, who is fishing a number of trap nets on Port Tobacco shoals, just at the mouth of Port Tobacco creek, caught 1,400 herring at one haul on Monday. The captain says this is an unusual haul so high up the river this early in the season.

The medical colleges in this part of the country are about closing for the year and the demand for "subjects" is brisk. During the dark of this moon the night doctors will be active, so those afraid of being snatched had better remain indoors after dark till next moon, when the season will be over.

The man who played the tramp at the Opera House this evening was arrested by Officer Price who, however, promptly released him on discovering his mistake.

Rev. J. I. Vance will preach in the Grace street Presbyterian church in Richmond to-morrow.

Officer Bettis left here yesterday to see his brother who it is feared is dying in Stafford.

Leo Camp will hold a meeting on Monday night to wind up the monument affairs.

"I had 'em all," said a rubicund, happily-faceted gentleman. "All what?" asked his friend. "Why, all the symptoms of malaria, viz: lame back, aching joints, sleeplessness, indigestion, dizzy fits, cold extremities, rush of blood to the head, constant fatigue, no appetite, pains in the breast after eating, night sweats, alternate chills and fevers, etc., but Brown's Iron Bitters cured me and I recommend it as being the best tonic made."
